DATE

Dear Clerk,

On September 8, 2004, I was sentenced to 8 months for violating the terms of my supervised release by the Honorable Jon Phipps McCalla. Prior to that I had served a state sentence based on the same criminal conduct. Even though I do not have my sentencing transcript and cannot afford to purchase them, I specifically recall Judge McCalla saying that I should receive credit for the time I was in custody under this judgment.

The records department here at the prison refuse to give me credit for that time because it is not specifically stated in my Judgment and Commitment Order. I now respectfully request that the Court issue an amended Judgment and Commitment Order specifically stating that I be granted that back-time.

Thank you and I await your response.

Sincerely,

Ismael Olivo
